Oregon Referee Lifetime Achievement Award Nomination

The USASA Referee Lifetime Achievement Award application must be filled out and returned to the OASA office – it must be complete, including bio and photo of the referee. Note: this is considered a “Lifetime Achievement Award” for service to the adult game in Oregon and beyond; it is not an award for the “best” referee, or the referee doing the most in a given year.

The OASA Referee Recognition Committee will review nominations, and make recommendations to the OASA Board; the OASA board will make the final selection of Referee Lifetime Achievement Award and will nominate the selected referee for USASA Region IV Referee Lifetime Achievement Award.
